Prayer helps us to expect the unexpected. Jesus promises, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Please remember to pray for Cleide & Wayne Apple, Bobby Creason, Denis Cusson, Linda Hosier, Worth Knight, Josie Martin and Hilda Smith. Please encourage these individuals with cards and visits.

Each Sabbath morning from 9-9:25 a.m. individuals are invited to meet in the library for a time of intercessory prayer. Come lift up your family, friends and our church family in prayer.

Denis & Grant Cusson want to thank the men of Men's Ministry for cutting and stacking the wood which was done several weeks ago. Also for your prayers and the food you have brought to the house. Dishes have been placed on the rack in the kitchen.

All ministries and departments of the church are asked to help conserve funds by turning off lights and adjusting material orders to the actual need. Thank you for your help!

Transfer of Membership, Second Reading: Barry Einhellig to the Kernersville Church from Gentry, Arkansas. Anne Collins from Kernersville to the Port Charlotte Church.

The final meeting for Living with Hope will take place this evening from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the sanctuary.

The November Kernersville Kourier church newsletter is now available online at www.kernerresvilleadventist.org. A printed copy is available at the Outreach Ministries Window after the worship service today for those without Internet access.

Volunteers are needed tomorrow morning from 8 a.m. until noon to help assemble the framework for the shopkeepers' booths for Walk Through Bethlehem. Please bring gloves, cordless drills, hammers and saws.

Walk Through Bethlehem is just 5 weeks away. Mark your calendar for December 4,5,6,11,and 12. Adult and youth volunteers are needed tomorrow from 8 a.m.-12 noon to begin construction of the scenes.

All the primary actors, tour guides and area directors for Walk Through Bethlehem are asked to meet tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the sanctuary to receive your script and other information.

All elders are asked to meet this coming Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. in the church library for their November meeting.

We each need the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Join the Morning Prayer Meeting group each Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. as they study LeRoy Froom's book Coming of the Comforter.

It's time to place your order for Indian River Florida navel oranges, red grapefruit and tangerines for delivery in November. All profits benefit the Worthy Student Fund. To place your order call Duane and Barbara Peterson at 880-3718 or 996-4889. If there is no answer please leave a message. Order deadline is Sunday, November 8.

Tri-City Christian Academy is hosting a Fall Social (Festival) at the school on Saturday evening November 7 at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is invited. Volunteers are needed to man the booths and provide sugar cookies. If you can help, please call Karen Holt at 707-7583.

Beginning November 1 all purchases at the Vegetarian Food Pantry must be made on a cash or check upon delivery basis. This is to help make the accounting process easier for our volunteers.

Fresh homemade bread by Brad Anderson is now available for purchase each Wednesday evening from 5-6:30 p.m. at the Vegetarian Food Pantry.

We ask that only non-marking shoes be worn for recreation in the Family Life Center.

Do you or someone you know in the church need help with simple home repairs or yard work? Men's Ministry is looking for small service projects that men can help with. Please call Larry Chandler at 671-0101 or by email at lfchandler2020@aol.com.

Community Services needs soups, crackers, and peanut butter. Please leave these items in the basket in the foyer.

Pathfinders are selling calendars, note pads and greeting cards as a fundraiser for their club. For more information, talk to a Pathfinder or staff member.

Tri-City Christian Academy is still collecting General Mills Box Tops for Education. Last year over $200 was received by your efforts. TCA is also collecting used printer cartridges. Thank you for supporting our school!

Plan now for the 2009 Community Service Retreat at Noscooca Pines Ranch November 13-15 with Pastor Derriel Hoy (Allegheny East Conference, Asst. Director for Community Service). Watch the bulletin for more information.
